CHARLES ARDENFIELD.

LAURENCE.—On the 17th inst., my store, No. 96 Broadway, with my stock of merchandise, was entirely destroyed by fire. My loss, though heavy, would have been much more, but I was fortunate enough to have one of our partners, Mr. J. H. Saylor, to help me out. We have now got back all our goods, and some bank notes, after having 18 hours exposed to a very severe and searching flame. My old partners, &c., which I could not find room in the safe, were intrusted to a wain in the wall; they are a mass of ashes.—Now York, Feb. 18, 1858.

CHARLES ARDENFIELD.

THE above can be seen at our depot in Water-st.

R. C. BROWN.—No. 125 Water-st., and No. 251 Broadway, New-York.

These plated Tea Sets.

They are beautiful, very beautiful, and cheap, especially the "Claw-foot" pattern. They are sold in sets of six pieces, or separately, with the exception of the Sugar and Cream Cup, which like John Andrew, and others, do not seem to be kept "tight-lipped." For sale at $6. Boxes ship-free.

LUCAS HART.
